

Wilson-Reigelsberger Residence
Avon
Lorain County
Ohio

HABS
OHIO
41-AVO
2-

Wilson-Reigelsberger
Avon, Ohio

HABS No. O-239

HABS
OHIO
47-AVO
2-

Owner (or Custodian) T. J. Reigelsberger

Date of Erection Built about 1856

Architect

Builder John Wilson

Present Condition Fair state of preservation. Needs painting. All but four of the original divided light windows have been replaced.

Number of Stories Two stories and one story ell

Materials of Construction Frame building. Asphalt roof over old shingles.
Stone foundation 18" thick.

Other Existing Records: Three drawings
One photograph
One page of history

Additional Data:

Wilson-Reigelsberger Residence
Avon, Ohio

HABS No. O-239

Built by John Wilson, one of four brothers who emigrated from New England and settled all in the immediate vicinity about 1852. They purchased the land, 125 acres, from the Connecticut Land Company a few years earlier. The property stayed in the Wilson family until sold in 1900 to Mathias Reigelsberger, who in turn left it to his son T. J. Reigelsberger, the present owner.

Frame building--siding 4" to the weather. Two story and one story ell. Asphalt roof over old shingles. Stone foundation 19" thick.

Property is in good state of repairs--needs paint. Have replaced all but four of original divided light windows.

Historic American Buildings Survey
William A. Bohnard, District Officer
9315 Newton Ave., Cleveland, Ohio

TW 6/14/37